North American League News

Winter 2026

The North American League (NAL) offers year-long series in six divisions – Adult Hunter Presented by R & R Hunter Horses, Children's Hunter, 1.10/1.15m Amateur Jumper Presented by SmartEquine, 1.10/1.15m Junior Jumper, 1.30/1.35m Junior/Amateur Jumper Presented by Parlanti and 1.20/1.25m Junior/Amateur Jumper. The series includes classes held at hundreds of horse shows across the United States and Canada, giving riders in these divisions a chance to ride in year-end finals at two major shows – the West Coast Finals at the National Sunshine 1 Horse Show in Thermal, California, October 27-November 1, and the National Finals at the Capital Challenge Horse Show at the Prince George's Equestrian Center in Upper Marlboro, MD, September 23-October 4.

Along with the prize money, each Final awarded its champions with an NAL coolerette, gift certificates donated by SmartEquine and The Clothes Horse, and ribbon awards courtesy of Topline Ribbons & Awards. Additionally, all ribbon winners received an NAL throw blanket, and all riders participating in the Finals received gift bags with an assortment of gifts courtesy of the NAL and Pinsnickety.

This annual newsletter encompasses articles about each of the NAL's division winners from the National Finals and West Coast Finals. For more information on the NAL, please call 717-867-5643, email NAL@Ryegate.com or visit www.ryegate.com. Follow the NAL on Facebook at https://www.facebook.com/NALFinals.

Cara Garito and Ever Wonder

The 11-year-old Warmblood gelding Ever Wonder, owned and ridden by Cara Garito of Colts Neck, NJ, emerged victorious in the $10,000 Adult Hunter Finals Presented by R & R Hunter Horses with a two-round score of 171 points. Although the pair sat in fifth place following their first-round score of 85, Garito met her goal of scoring higher in the second round, posting an 86 that ultimately secured them the win.

"My plan in the second round was to do better than I did in the first round, and we did!" Garito said. "I was hoping to move up because of it, but I was completely surprised when we landed in first. 'Kenny' was super consistent in both rounds. I started doing the Adult Hunters with him in Florida, and we were consistent in several Classics there. We kept pecking away at it. I'm so glad it all worked out.

"I leased him about a year ago for six months, and we liked him so much we leased him for another six months," she added. "Then I liked him so much I purchased him. He's never leaving! He is totally reliable and dependable. I can walk in any ring on him, and I know he's got me. He just walks in and owns the ring and makes me feel so confident."

Second place went to Sarah York of East Bridgewater, MA, and her 7-year-old Dutch Warmblood mare Qrumpet for their total of 170.5 points. Tricia Barr of Wellington, FL, and her 10-year-old Westphalian gelding Party Started earned third with 168 points.

Darby Mullally and Glasgow

Glasgow, a 15-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding owned by Judgment Farms LLC, returned to the NAL winner's circle for the second consecutive year, this time ridden by Darby Mullally, 12, of Kalamazoo, MI. After posting a first-round score of 86, Mullally and Glasgow were the penultimate pair to return for the second round; their additional score of 90 secured them the win with a total of 176 points.

"My trainers told me to ride my ride, and the only person that I need to be is myself," Mullally said. "We worked on a lot of bending lines at home, so I wasn't really worried about those. I was more worried about resetting in the corners because that's something I've struggled with before, but we've gotten a lot better.

"I love 'Teddy' so much," she added. "He's my favorite horse that I've ever had because he's so kind and gentle. It was a little hard to learn him at first because he's a lot different than anything I've ever ridden before, but then it got easier. It was also very special to win this class because he won the same class last year and this is my first 90. Last year, I just came here for the experience, but this year, I came to be competitive. I'm really glad I could do that with him."

Leandro, a 12-year-old Holsteiner gelding owned and ridden by Allie-Ross Thomas of The Plains, VA, claimed second with 175 points. The 12-year-old Hanoverian gelding Luxor, owned and ridden by Elsa Coleman of Kirkwood, MO, finished third with 163 points.

Taylor Kungle and Quickly Stated

After a second-place finish in the $10,000 1.10/1.15m Amateur Jumper Finals Presented by SmartEquine in 2025, Taylor Kungle of Wellington, FL, and Quickly Stated returned for top honors in 2026, posting a double-clear score in 33.809 seconds to blaze 1.4 seconds ahead of their fellow competitors. At 20 years old, Breakwater Farm LLC's Belgian Warmblood mare brings plenty of experience to the ring.

"I got her a little later in her career, and it's been such a blessing," Kungle said. "It's been so fun to have an old horse that knows what she's doing. I'm so thankful for Hallie (Grimes) and Team Back Country for helping me and making this happen. Every time I go in the show ring with her, it's really emotional. I'm always very grateful to get to show her.

"Landing from the final jump was just euphoric," she continued. "The course was so fun, and I feel like 'Tutu' was excited as well. We were just zooming around, and she didn't want to stop. It was an incredible feeling. She's really my best friend; she lives in my backyard, and I see her every day. She's always there for me. She tried her heart out tonight, and it means the world to me."

Kayla Mahmood of Cooksville, MD, and Laconda, Brenna Doherty's 10-year-old Westphalian mare, earned second with the only other double-clear score of 35.214 seconds. Third went to Reilly Canard of Philomont, VA, and Bull Run's Relentless, Tittle Sport Horses' 18-year-old Warmblood gelding, for their four-fault jump-off score.

1.10/1.15m Junior Jumper

National Finals at Capital Challenge Horse Show

Kinsley Nolte and Diablo Z

Just the third horse-and-rider combination to jump off for top honors in the $10,000 1.10/1.15m Junior Jumper Finals, Kinsley Nolte of Downingtown, PA, and Diablo Z set an early time to beat at 30.590 seconds. The duo ultimately proved uncatchable, bringing home the win nearly two seconds ahead of their next best competitor.

"He's been the most amazing horse ever," Nolte said of her 17-year-old Holsteiner gelding, whom she's partnered with since June. "He's so game for anything, and he loves his job so much. I've never met a horse that loves their job as much as he does."

For the jump-off, Nolte and her trainer, Troy Hendricks, planned a tight inside turn after the first jump. "I was not feeling super confident about it, but I just landed and was like, 'Okay, here we go!'" she said. "He turned inside and was super quick over the ground. He's just so incredibly fast. Getting into the jumper ring this year has been super exciting, and it's nice to try something different. Just being able to qualify for these finals in such a short amount of time with him has been so incredible, and I'm so thankful to have this opportunity."

Second-place honors went to Isabelle Castellanos of Wellington, FL, for her 32.350-second time aboard Castellrock LLC's 9-year-old Irish Sport Horse gelding ESI Lucius. Samantha Teller of New York, NY, wasn't far behind in third, posting a time of 32.367 seconds aboard Calcite Des Baillons, McLain Ward's 14-year-old Warmblood gelding.

National Finals at Capital Challenge Horse Show

Hailey Guidry and Jones

A familiar face in the NAL winner's circle, Hailey Guidry of Metairie, LA, claimed victory in the $10,000 1.30/1.35m Junior/Amateur Jumper Finals Presented by Parlanti with her new partner, Jones, a 12-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding owned by Honor Hill Farm LLC. The pair posted a faultless time of 35.759 seconds.

Guidry previously won the 2023 Low Junior/Amateur Jumper Final before taking a break from riding to focus on school. She returned to the ring in January 2026 and, with help from trainer Abby Blankenship, partnered with "Spot" in May. "He's such a good boy," she said. "He is always so game; he's honestly better than me. He's been doing the grand prix, and I bought him to do the U25 and 1.40/1.45m classes. This is our first big show together, and I'm very happy with how it went.

"I wasn't expecting to go in and win," she continued. "It's honestly surreal. Coming back now, it's definitely a bit harder to see all the people I grew up with being in higher levels than me, but I'm very grateful that I even get to be back in the sport and have the horses that I have."

Kalea Iuliano of Santa Cruz, CA, and Kylie Wilson of Pinecrest, FL, rounded out the podium with the only other double-clear scores. Iuliano piloted her 10-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding Arlecchino Du Soleil Z into second place with a time of 36.536 seconds. Wilson brought home third in 36.895 seconds aboard her 10-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding Larderello.

Mary Margaret Tortorice and Londra Domani

After faultlessly tripping the timers in 33.176 seconds to set the time to beat in the $10,000 1.20/1.25m Junior/Amateur Jumper Finals, Mary Margaret Tortorice of Beaumont, TX, and Londra Domani ultimately walked away with the win. This was the first indoor competition for Tortorice, 13, who trains with Berry Porter and Brookside Pine Farms and has ridden Olivia Krapf's 10-year-old Italian Warmblood mare for just over a year.

"She's quite small, but I feel like I'm better on the small, fast ones," Tortorice said. "Having a little more compact of a horse was also easier in this indoor ring. She's just the best. She'll jump over the moon for me. I knew if I rode well, she would help me out, and I'm so happy with how it worked out. It's a really big deal for me to win."

Grace Griffin of Long Lake, MN, and her 15-year-old Belgian Warmblood gelding Larinto VDR earned second for their double-clear score of 33.619 seconds. Georgina Jewell of Palm Beach, FL, took third for her 33.851-second time aboard Kybalia SMH/SVN, Jet Show Stable's 11-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding.

Randi Pomrehn and City Lights

With Randi Pomrehn of Temecula, CA, in the saddle, Kate Considine's 8-year-old Holsteiner gelding City Lights triumphed in the $5,000 West Coast Adult Hunter Finals Presented by R & R Hunter Horses. The longtime partners successfully showcased their connection to earn a two-round score of 171.25 points.

"'Charlie' is one of the sweetest horses I've ever met," Pomrehn said. "We know each other so well that showing is always enjoyable. We've started showing in the Junior/Amateur National Derbies, too, which is a new challenge for us both. He's becoming quite a well-rounded horse, and it has been an honor to be part of his development with Kate and the Willow Brook Stables team." The pair also earned the High Point West Coast Adult Amateur Hunter Award for their success during the qualifying year.

Second place went to Hannah Klasson of Santa Rose Valley, CA, and her 11-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding Siesta for their total of 168.5 points. Maya Varga of Pacific Palisades, CA, and her 12-year-old Swedish Warmblood gelding Watermark earned third with 165.5 points.

MacLean Sennhenn and First Look

First Look, a 13-year-old Holsteiner gelding owned by Millennium Farm Inc. and ridden by MacLean Sennhenn of Incline Village, NV, led the victory gallop in the $5,000 West Coast Children's Hunter Finals. After posting the highest first-round score of 85, the pair returned for an additional score of 86 in the second round and brought home the win with a total of 171 points.

Each podium finisher was separated by a single point. Keira Wong of Los Altos Hills, CA, guided Little White Lie, Calypso Equestrian's 18-year-old Oldenburg gelding, into second place with a total of 170 points. The 8-year-old Dutch Warmblood gelding Zireael, owned and ridden by Miya Borba of Hilmar, CA, finished third with 169 points.

West Coast Finals at Sunshine 1 Horse Show

Keely Laughlin and GHF Chicken Man

The $10,000 West Coast 1.10/1.15m Amateur Jumper Finals Presented by SmartEquine came down to a three-horse jump-off under the lights, with Keely Laughlin and her homebred GHF Chicken Man posting the fastest double-clear time in 36.857 seconds. The win was a family affair; Laughlin's mother, Donelle, bred the 11-year-old Holsteiner stallion on their family's farm in Carmel, California, where they start all their horses themselves.

"When you're jumping this height, you don't always get to do it at 7:30 at night under the lights in an awesome field," Laughlin said. "My horse was a little like, 'What's going on? I've never been in an arena like this.' But he just took all the energy in and jumped his best, and it was really fun. To see him here and winning is really rewarding. He's just starting to get to these venues, and he loves jumping. He kind of lights up when he does this.

"I'm just so grateful for this NAL competition and the horse park for hosting it," she added. "It makes it really fun for us amateurs to do something so special."

Camille O'Brien of Pasadena, CA, and her 10-year-old Hanoverian gelding Calle Junior earned second with the only other double-clear score of 37.835 seconds. Third went to Tanya Jarvis of Del Mar, CA, and Hubertin De Reile, SWS Training & Sales' 9-year-old Selle Français gelding, for their four-fault jump-off score.

Sarah Almasri and Carmen De Bonnieres

About a month into her partnership with David Bustillos's 14-year-old Dutch Warmblood mare, Sarah Almasri of Simi Valley, CA, piloted Carmen De Bonnieres to the top of the leaderboard in the $10,000 West Coast 1.10/1.15m Junior Jumper Finals. The pair was one of six who advanced to the jump-off, where they blazed ahead of the rest of the field in 33.333 seconds.

"My first round, I was a little bit scared because she was going so fast," said Almasri, who trains with her father, Morad. "Then, after the first two jumps, I felt so confident that I just sat back and turned, and she was going so well. My plan [for the jump-off] was to stay inside and go really fast. Going around this arena felt amazing."

Second-place honors went to Isabella Van Der Werf of Sherwood Park, AB, for her 35.598-second time aboard her 11-year-old mare Serendepety. Gal Polak of Palo Alto, CA, and her 11-year-old Warmblood mare Clintina stopped the clock in 36.120 seconds for third.

Chloe Hazen and Electra De Talma

Chloe Hazen of Tucson, AZ, partnered with Electra De Talma about a year ago with the goal of becoming a more consistent rider in the 1.25m. Since then, she and her 12-year-old Selle Français mare have seen plenty of success in the 1.35m, including claiming the win in the $10,000 West Coast 1.30/1.35m Junior/Amateur Jumper Finals Presented by Parlanti. The duo tripped the timers on a faultless score of 35.726 seconds.

"She's the best," Hazen said. "Every time we show, she gives her absolute most, and it always feels like we're working together as a team. She always makes me smile, no matter how well we do, and I've never had as much fun showing as I do with her. She's not only an incredible horse in the ring but also wonderful to be around in the barn, out on trails, or just spending time together. She's always happy, and I just love being around her!"

Of the five horse-and-rider combinations who advanced to the jump-off, two more double-clear finishers rounded out the podium. Kennedy Chang of Pasadena, CA, took second aboard My Lady, a 12-year-old Oldenburg mare owned by Lily Lee and Purple Hill Farms, with a time of 38.554 seconds. Natalie Kraus of Goleta, CA, claimed third in 49.061 seconds aboard Banzai De Vima, a 15-year-old Selle Français gelding owned by Marin Gilliland and Sherry A. Curtis.

Sienna Smith and Chanbette

Six entries made it to the jump-off in the $10,000 West Coast 1.20/1.25m Junior/Amateur Jumper Finals, and after four went double clear, Sienna Smith landed on the podium with two horses. The resident of Villa Park, CA, emerged victorious in 35.912 seconds aboard her 14-year-old Oldenburg mare Chanbette and secured third in 37.746 seconds aboard her 10-year-old Holsteiner gelding Zafon.

Splitting Smith's entries in second place was Lillian Loftin of La Jolla, CA, who crossed the finish line in 37.357 seconds aboard Hejecomghorla Van Beek Z, her 8-year-old Warmblood mare.
